Chief Warrant Officer Chuck Harms Retires

Chief Warrant Officer Chuck Harms, Training, N7, with the Navy Air and Missile Defense Command at NSF Dahlgren retired Oct. 29 after 29 years of service.

He began his Navy career in January 1981, advanced to Senior Chief Petty Officer and was commissioned a Chief Warrant Officer in October 1995. His fleet assignments included: USS Robert E. Peary (FF 1073), Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; USS Lake Champlain (CG 57), San Diego, Calif.; USS Barry (DDG 52), Norfolk, Va.(twice); and USS Curtis Wilbur (DDG 54), San Diego, Calif., and Yokosuka, Japan.

His duty stations also included multiple assignments to the AEGIS Training and Readiness Center in Dahlgren, where he served as ballistic missile defense course supervisor and AEGIS BMD fleet liaison officer before joining NAMDC in April 2009.
